READERS' LETTERS - Regarding comments in the February edition from Mr Tom Fuller in readers letters. I also can not believe that planning has been granted for eight properties on the very tight location on Dawsons Loke. We bought our property on the boundary of the farmers agricultural field to enjoy the wild life and views from our garden. Blofield Corner Road is already having a number of houses built by Bennet homes, which is making a right mess on the road, also having a fire on site, burning old hedges etc taken out.

I thought everything had to be removed from site and not burnt. Obviously we do not need these eight properties as well. Blofield Corner Road is a single lane leading down to Little Plumstead but who cares at Blofield Parish. You don't live here. Just shows it's who you know, not what local people want. Might want to change the name of Blofield Heath to Blo, as soon there will be no field or heath.

Regards Mr G Coghlan, Blofield Heath.
